

NEW at Otterbine!! CABLE PROTECTION

You asked for it and we got it! NOW AVAILABLE - STAINLESS STEEL CABLE SHIELDING & POLYMER CABLE WRAP! Too often we discover that varmints find underwater cable tasty and irresistible - creating havoc to the operation of equipment in the water. No more! Otterbine now offers two solutions: Stainless Steel Cable Shielding and Polymer Cable Wrap.

STAINLESS STEEL CABLE SHIELDING:

Stainless Steel Cable Shielding offers the best solution in protecting cable in abrasive, critter infested ponds. This option can be purchased by the foot and applied on either end of the cable, or the entire cable length, (EX: You only want 25ft at the end of the cable nearest the unit, vs the entire 100ft run.) S/S shielding will cover vulcanized areas of cable when applicable. Recommended max length = 200ft, contact factory for longer runs. This is a factory applied option; there currently is no field apply kit for S/S shielding, see Cable Wrap option.

CABLE WRAP:

This polymer wrap-around style cable wrap offers extreme resistance to cuts and abrasions and offers increased protection to your unit/lighting cable. Not as resilient as the stainless-steel shielding, this cable wrap is ideal for applying to cable in the field. This option can be purchased by the foot and is applied in the field.
